

Public Trustee

What they do

The Public Trustee is a government service.

👉 They help people manage their money and legal matters.

👤 Who they help

They help people who may need support, such as:

- Adults who cannot manage their money
- People who need help with legal or financial decisions

👉 This can happen because of illness, injury, or other reasons.

💬 What they do

1. Manage money

- Look after:
 - Bank accounts
 - Bills
 - Savings

👉 They will help you understand your options. qld.gov.au

2. Manage property and assets

- Help with:
 - Houses
 - Belongings
 - Investments

This helps them find the right housing for you. qld.gov.au

3. Help with legal documents

- Help people make:
 - Wills
 - Powers of Attorney

These documents say what a person wants for the future.

4. Make financial decisions (if needed)

Sometimes they are appointed to:

- Make money decisions for someone

This only happens when the person cannot do it themselves.

Important to know

- The Public Trustee deals with money and property
- The Public Guardian deals with personal and health decisions

They are two different services.

Remember

The Public Trustee is there to:

- Protect people's money
- Help with financial decisions
- Support people who need extra help

 They help make sure a person's money and assets are safe. You can always ask a trusted friend, family member, advocate or other support for assistance with this.
